The Royal Australasian College of Physicians (RACP)

To become an Endocrinologist, you will need to apply for fellowship with The Royal Australasian College of Physicians. Fellowship is a 6 year (full time) training pathway consisting of 3 years (full time) Adult Internal Medicine - Basic Training followed by 3 years (full time) Advanced Training in Endocrinology. Please note this reference guide refers to Endocrinology (Adult Medicine).

Basic	Year 1	Adult Internal Medicine - Basic Training: 36 months (full time) consisting of: • 24 months (full time) core training (including 3 months general and acute care medicine & 12 months in medical specialties) • Maximum 12 months non-core training. Completing Basic Training in Adult Internal Medicine allows doctors to train in General and Acute Care Medicine and/or specialise in one of 26 medical specialties available in the Advanced Training Program.
Basic	Year 2
Basic	Year 3
Advanced	Year 4	Advanced Training in Endocrinology: 36 months (full time) consisting of: • 24 months (full time) core training, including 12 months required clinical training time • 12 months (full time) non-core training
Advanced	Year 5

Entry requirements/pre-requisites

- General Medical Registration with the Medical Board of Australia.
- Be a citizen of Australia or New Zealand or a permanent resident of Australia.
- Have completed the RACP Basic Physician Training (including the RACP Written and Clinical Examinations).
- Have an appointment to an appropriate Advanced Training position.

Application and selection process – how to apply

In Queensland, first year Basic Training Positions (BTP1) are recruited and managed directly by the individual Hospital and Health Service (HHS), not via the Network. The College is not responsible for trainee recruitment. Information relating to the training positions in hospitals accredited by the College to provide Basic Training, is accessed via the available positions within each hospital via the RMO Campaign website.

The Queensland Basic Physician Training Network provides centralised recruitment, selection and allocation of Basic Physician Trainees (BPT) intending to commence their second or third year (BPT2 and BPT3) of training in Queensland and are registrar level appointments.

New and current trainees need to apply for Advanced Training each year with RACP. In Queensland, Advanced Training in Endocrinology is managed centrally by a panel comprised of Endocrinology Unit Directors from accredited training facilities. Applicants can secure an advanced training position by applying through the RMO Campaign. For information on eligibility and other key recruitment details, please refer to the Queensland Endocrinology Advanced Training Program website.
